The Craft

The art of Jaintia black clay pottery is unique because the artisans make and shape the products purely by hand with very minimal use of mechanical equipment. The GI tag was awarded to this craft in the year 2024 as Meghalaya Lyrnai Pottery No:1095, also known as black pottery, from Jaintia Hills. This distinctive craft, characterized by its use of black clay and serpentine stone, highlights the rich cultural heritage and traditional craftsmanship unique to Meghalaya.
